Notes for the online examination

Preparations

You will need to keep the following points in mind when preparing for your online examination.

- (1) Use your own web camera, headphones (earphones) and microphone (which may be built in to your PC). Do not use speakers.
- (2) Make sure that you can attend the online examination in a private room with no one else present on the day of the examination.
- (3) Test your Internet connection beforehand by following the instructions provided on the Musashino University website. Make sure that you conduct this test in the same system environment as the one that you will use on the day of the examination.
- (4) Make sure that you read and understand the Online Student Selection Pledge (which you must submit [Form ④]) and the manual for the online interview system. These documents can be found on the Musashino University website.

Admission to Master's program in Data Science

Examination day

- (1) Enter the URL for the interview 20 minutes before the scheduled start time and wait in the Interview Room. Avoid entering the URL manually as it's easy to enter it incorrectly. Instead, download your Admission Card and then copy and paste the URL. You also need to print out your Admission Card and keep it ready at hand during the examination.
 - * The scheduled start time for your interview may be subject to minor changes.
 - * Make sure that the device you use for the interview is connected to a power source and that all webpages and apps other than your Interview Room are closed before entering standby.
 - * You can use only one device. You must not use more than one device at the same time.
- (2) You may be refused an interview if you are unable to connect within five minutes of the scheduled start time for the interview.
- (3) Your interview will be recorded by the university to ensure that the examination is conducted fairly. Examinees are strictly prohibited from photographing, tape recording, video recording, or livestreaming their interviews and from taking notes about their examinations.
- (4) The following actions are considered acts of dishonesty, so your examination may be declared invalid if you are caught committing any of them.
 - 1) Leaving halfway through the examination
 - 2) Using an electronic device such as a PC, mobile phone, smartphone, or wearable device to do anything other than what the interviewer instructs you to do (e.g., conduct online searches) during the examination.
 - 3) Cheating (looking at a cheat sheet, reference book or being told answers from someone else).
 - 4) Using a virtual background during the examination.
 - 5) In case there is a person other than the applicant in the same room during the examination.
 - 6) Having someone other than the applicant pose as the applicant and take the examination.
 - 7) Carrying out any other act that impairs the fairness of the examination.
- (5) You may be contacted by the university on the day of the examination. Make sure that you can be reached at the telephone number and email address that you gave in your application as well as via the contact details that you entered in your application form ●. (You must set your mobile phone or smartphone to silent and keep it away from you during the examination, so that you cannot use it unless there is an emergency.)
- (6) If you experience any difficulties in attending the examination due to technical problems at your end, please contact Musashino University Admissions Office (Tel: +81-3-5530-7300) within 30 minutes of the scheduled start time for the examination. If you cannot get through, you can email the office instead (email address: nyushi@musashino-u.ac.jp). Note that your examination may be declared invalid if you contact the office after the scheduled end time for the examination.

Other matters to keep in mind

If Musashino University judges that it is difficult to conduct an entrance examination, etc., as originally planned due to a natural disaster or other unforeseen circumstances, it may take adaptive measures, such as deferring the examination time, postponing the examination, or changing the venue, content, or other details related to the examination. However, that Musashino University is not responsible for any associated individual damages incurred by the examinees. If such adaptive measures are to be taken, they will be listed on the Musashino University website (<https://www.musashino-u.ac.jp/>). Please check the website for details.

Admission Procedure Guidelines will be posted via EMS or another international mail service to the overseas addresses of successful applicants registered at the time of their application on September 29, 2023 (Fri). As it will take some time for the posted guidelines to reach you, a copy of the guidelines will also be emailed to your registered email address. If you want to check your results, you can access the University's Automatic Inquiry System for Entrance Examination Results on your smartphone or PC.

Automatic Inquiry System for Entrance Examination Results

This online system allows you to check your entrance examination results from your smartphone or PC: <https://www.gouhi.com/mu-u/>

- Available time: Between 12:00 pm on September 29, 2023 (Fri) to 12:00 am on September 30, 2023 (Sat) (*Japan time)
- Password: Your date of birth (four digits) Example: If you were born on May 21, your password will be "0521."
- Notes
 - We do not accept technical malfunctions or other such problems relating to this system as valid reasons for late admissions under any circumstances.
 - We do not provide a support service for helping you use the system or access information such as your examinee number or password. If a person other than the applicant wishes to use the system, the person will need to contact the applicant to obtain the necessary information.

Admission Procedure

Termination of Enrollment and Request for Refund of Admission Procedure Fees (Excluding the Admission Fee) Admission Procedure Guidelines will be sent to successful applicants. Complete the admission procedure within the admission period in accordance with the guidelines. In addition, you must make the payment required for admission via a financial institution within the admission period. If you do not complete the admission procedure before the deadline, we will assume that you do not intend to enroll in Musashino University. Submitted documents and payments will not be returned under any circumstances.

The fees charged as part of the admission procedure must be paid in full during the admission period. If you wish to apply for a refund of the fees that you have paid (excluding the admission fee) because you have passed another university's entrance examination and wish to withdraw from enrollment in Musashino University, please follow the steps described below. We cannot process any request if there is a deficiency in relation to the request process or the required documents.

(1) Advance Notice of Request for Refund of Admission Procedure Fees (Excluding the Admission Fee)

Fill out the form entitled "入学手続時納入金（入学金以外）返還予告書" ("Advance Notice of Request for Refund of Admission Procedure Fees [Excluding the Admission Fee]") and post it (by the postmark deadline) during the admission period together with your admission documents. We will not accept this request if it is submitted after the period.

(2) Notice of Termination of Enrollment

After completing the advance notice, fill out the form entitled "入学辞退兼入学手続時納入金（入学金以外）返還願" ("Request for Termination of Enrollment and Refund of Admission Procedure Fees [Excluding the Admission Fee]") and post it by Kan-i Kakitome Sokutatsu (Express registered mail) to arrive no later than 4:00 pm on March 31, 2024 (Sunday) (*Japan Time). We will not accept this request if it reaches us after the stipulated period.

(3) Return of Admission Procedure Fees (Excluding the Admission Fee)

Regardless of when the request for termination of enrollment is made, the refund will be transferred via a financial institution (your designated bank account) in late April 2024.

[For reference: Tuition fees and other fees for academic year 2023]

Tuition fees and other fees for academic year 2024 will be decided around August.

Tuition fees and other fees
